

Question ID: b4da6aaf

Question

The musical Hadestown was produced off-Broadway in New York in 2016. A revised version of the musical premiered on Broadway in 2019, in a larger production. In a review of the Broadway production, theater critic Jesse Green enthusiastically praised the musical's storytelling. However, Green also explained that he had seen the earlier version of Hadestown in 2016 and had found the storytelling to be very confusing. This suggests that in Green's view, _____

Which choice most logically completes the text?

Answer

- A. the 2016 version of Hadestown had fewer storytelling problems than the 2019 version did.
- B. Hadestown should have had a larger production in 2019 than it actually did.
- C. the 2019 version of Hadestown was less enjoyable than the 2016 version.
- D. Hadestown improved greatly between 2016 and its premiere on Broadway.