

Question ID: 5bf0f84a

Question

$$h(t) = -16t^2 + 110t + 72$$

The function above models the height h , in feet, of an object above ground t seconds after being launched straight up in the air. What does the number 72 represent in the function?

Answer

- A. The initial height, in feet, of the object
- B. The maximum height, in feet, of the object
- C. The initial speed, in feet per second, of the object
- D. The maximum speed, in feet per second, of the object