

Question ID: f678483b

Question

A submersible device is used for ocean research. The function $g(x) = -\frac{1}{55}(x + 19)(x - 35)$ gives the depth below the surface of the ocean, in meters, of the submersible device x minutes after collecting a sample, where $x > 0$. How many minutes after collecting the sample did it take for the submersible device to reach the surface of the ocean?