

Question ID: b5a399f1

Question

Following the Mata Ortiz pottery technique, Mexican sculptor Juan Quezada Celado starts by creating the base of the pot with a slab of clay. _____ he builds the pot walls by layering coils of clay around the perimeter of the base. Celado then smooths out the pot's walls with a hacksaw blade. At last, the pot is ready to be painted.

Which choice completes the text with the most logical transition?

Answer

- A. For example,
- B. However,
- C. By contrast,
- D. Next,