

Question ID: 129089b5

Question

In 1933, the Twentieth Amendment to the US Constitution was ratified. The amendment mandates that presidential inaugurations be held on January 20, approximately ten weeks after the November election. _____ this amendment requires newly elected US senators and representatives to be sworn into their respective offices on January 3.

Which choice completes the text with the most logical transition?

Answer

- A. Instead,
- B. For instance,
- C. Specifically,
- D. In addition,